We have an interesting budges of newe from Key West this morning, our correspondence being to the 35d instant. The change in the command of the post had been effected, Col. Joseph 5. Morgan and the Minetisth New York Volunteers, giving place to Col. T. H. Goode and the Forty-seventh Pennsylvania Volunteers. This change, our correspondent intinsates, is the result of complaints made by the slavsholders of the vicinity, who have been much dissatisfied with the course Col. Morgan has taken regarding their "clustels." The United States gunboat Sagamore had arrived from Indian river, having in tow as a prize the schooner Alice, of Nassan, loaded with cotton. The Bagamore had eaptured five prizes during the cruise, and burned a number of small craft. At the date of our correspondent's letter, there were twenty-four prizes in the harbor of Key West, awaiting adjudiestion. The Banks transport steamers Albany and Cambria had called to take in coal. The assumer McClellan had arrived from New Crissus, and taken on board the One Hundred and Phily-sixth Regiment New York Volunteers, who were on board the One Hundred and Phily-sixth Regiment New York Volunteers, who were on board. She brought intelligence of the progress of the Banks Expedition up the Mashashpel as far as Key West, and rumors obtained from reled papers that a fight was going on at Vicksburg.—Xee York Times.
